

DIGITAL MEDIA PRODUCER

- Excellent opportunity to further your media career
- Westpac Centre location
- Proven experience in film and video production mandatory!

The role is to produce digital content about the day-to-day happenings at the Westpac Centre to be consumed by Collingwood members and supporters through various media channels. This role is fun, varied and ideal for a budding video / film producer who is keen to continue their exciting career world of online and sports media.

Reporting to the Digital Media Manager, the perfect candidate will be have a fascination with digital media (specifically digital video and film content), have a passion for all things web related and be completely across emerging new media.

Following your university studies in Multimedia, Journalism, Film Production or related field, this is your opportunity to launch yourself into the big time. Whilst you may have some experience in this space (or you may be a recent graduate), you must be able to demonstrate your proven skills in video editing / film making to be successful in this role.

This role will be required to work match days and outside of standard working hours.

To be considered for this role you must follow the four-step application process outlined below. Incomplete applications will not be considered!

1. Provide a link to a short video (1 min max) telling us about yourself and demonstrating what it is that makes you the best candidate for this amazing opportunity
 - Be creative!
 - Must be hosted online – please don't send video files
2. Provide a link to a short showreel (1 min max) demonstrating your quality editing / film making skills
3. Send links to your online videos or websites that you have created (max 5 links)
4. Provide a copy of your resume

Send your application through to digitalmediaproducer@collingwoodfc.com.au

We can't wait to see what you can do!

APPLICATIONS CLOSE AT 12 NOON ON MONDAY 30TH JANUARY 2012